

Sperm whale, courtesy of Brandon Cole

Whales | Tohorā

Dive into the world of these amazing sea creatures and visit this exciting and highly interactive exhibition.

The TOWER Gallery, Level 4. Children free entry, admission charges apply for adults.

Mō Tātou: The Ngāi Tahu Whānui exhibition

Mō Tātou celebrates the distinct and dynamic culture of the South Island's Ngāi Tahu people – from their creation story and important taonga (treasures) to their representation on the world art stage.

In Surface Tension, a large human eye follows your every move! Rafael Lozano-Hemmer, artist behind the award-winning installation Body Movies (also at Te Papa), explores surveillance in our lives. Level 2.

Open 10am to 6pm every day and late on Thursdays until 9pm!

Museum of New Zealand Te Papa Tongarewa,
Cable Street, Wellington, Phone +64-4-381 7000, mail@tepapa.govt.nz

See our website for details www.tepapa.govt.nz

